

April 1

Hi .. my name's ALAA FADEL , I'm 29 years old , I am a peaceful person .. and live a normal life , I studied University of Agricultural Engineering in Damascus in Syria for a fifth years since 2009 and I have identification papers prove that , also I work in construction and I can speak English well , because of the random arrests of the Assad regime in the year 2015 I was arrested and I was in Sednaya prison ,after the severe psychological and physical torture , i took out after my imprisonment of for four years , I even had papers proving my arrest .. then traveled to Turkey by smuggling because I am forbidden to travel and the Syrian government asked me to serve the army , Imagine this .. After my arrest for years they asked me to serve the army with them, what's this the contradiction? I have a relative in Canada and I have a close friend in America even he was with me in prison in Syria and he was just a tourist but the Asad regime doesn't understand this thing and doesn't give freedom to anyone who was .. I want to travel to Canada .. first because I can speake English and this makes my living easier and secondly because I have a relative , finally I want a quiet and peaceful live with my work and my study.

As I have heard, it is a beautiful and quiet country where I'm not oppressed .. I have a sister who graduated from the literature of the English , I have an older brother than me but he 's disabled even

I have an older brother than me but he 's disabled even he's treated badly in Syria and this isn't humanity and I have a younger brother than me 10 years old ,my parents are alive , I am trying to work here in Turkey to earn a living and send them some money but the life here is very deficult and I must work all the time just to be alive ..

I want to said thanks alot for every things you do for the people like us specially for the family ..
The religion not by prayers but by treated and humanity .
